

GOJO INDUSTRIES, INC.
PURCHASE ORDER TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. Acceptance. This purchase order, which includes the following terms and conditions (together, this "Purchase Order") is the offer of GOJO Industries, Inc., including its subsidiaries and affiliates (collectively, "Purchaser") to purchase from the party to whom it is sent ("Seller") the goods described herein. This Purchase Order may be accepted by any reasonable indication of acceptance by Seller, including, but not limited to, acknowledgement or commencement of performance by Seller. Acceptance of this Purchase Order by Seller, however made, is limited to these terms and conditions. Any modification of this Purchase Order must be in writing and signed by Purchaser. Any additional or contrary terms and conditions contained in any form of Seller not specifically accepted in writing by Purchaser are hereby rejected. Seller shall not ship any goods or perform any work or service under this Purchase Order unless the terms and conditions of this Purchase Order are acceptable to Seller.

2. Quality, Quantity, Deliveries, and Packing. In the event no quality is specified on the face hereof, the goods delivered hereunder must be of the best quality. The quantity of goods indicated on the face hereof must not vary from the Purchase Order by plus or minus 5% without written approval of Purchaser. From time to time, Purchaser may not be able to count the goods when received. Upon count, Purchaser may adjust the invoiced price for any over or under shipment. Purchaser is not liable for the cost of packing, boxing, or cartage, unless specified on the face hereof. Risk of loss of or damage to any goods not packed in such a manner as to insure proper protection to the goods shall be borne by Seller. Each package of goods must comply with the receiving document requirements as provided by Purchaser. In the event receiving documents are not provided, each package of goods shipped must externally show shipper's name, contents of package, quantity, Purchaser's part number(s), and Purchase Order number on the face thereof. Seller shall ship and deliver goods hereunder on the date or dates specified on the face hereof unless prior approval of any change in such date or dates is given by Purchaser.

No tender of delivery of goods or any document, data, or other items pursuant to this Purchase Order shall be deemed made to purchaser and no liability or obligation to inspect such goods, documents, data, or other items shall be imposed on Purchaser, unless and until they are tendered in precise conformity to the specifications and instructions of this Purchase Order (including, but not limited to, specifications and instructions relating to kind, quantity, quality, assortment, labeling and packaging, delivery, shipping, routing, and conformity to specifications, designs, and samples).

If Seller fails to meet a delivery date applicable to this Purchase Order, Purchaser may issue an amended purchase order with Seller's updated delivery date. The issuance of such an amended purchase order and/or the acceptance of late delivery do not by themselves represent a waiver or release of any rights or remedies Purchaser may have resulting from Seller's failure to meet the original delivery date. Any such waiver or release must be specifically described in a separate writing.

3. Inspection. Notwithstanding prior payment and/or inspection by Purchaser, all shipments of goods hereunder shall be subject to inspection by and approval of Purchaser after arrival of such goods at the delivery point specified on the face hereof.

4. Title and Encumbrances. Seller represents to Purchaser that it has good and marketable title to the goods purchased hereunder free and clear of all encumbrances. Unless otherwise specified in this Purchase Order, title to the goods purchased hereunder passes to Purchaser at the time they are received and accepted by Purchaser in accordance with these terms and conditions.

5. Warranty. By accepting this Purchase Order, Seller hereby warrants that the items to be furnished hereunder will be in full conformity with Purchaser's specifications, drawings and data, or Seller's samples, and that items furnished hereunder will be merchantable and fit for their intended purposes or the use intended by Purchaser. This warranty will survive acceptance of the items or services. Said warranties are in addition to any warranties of additional scope given to Purchaser by Seller. Seller shall be liable for incidental and consequential damages arising from any breach of warranty. All warranties set out herein and other warranties as may be prescribed by law extend to Purchaser, its successors, assigns, and customers, and to users of the goods furnished hereunder and will run through any expiration date stated in Seller's warranty. If Seller is providing services, Seller warrants that the services will be provided in a highly professional and timely manner and at a minimum level consistent with the highest standards of performance of a professional providing similar services.

6. Mistakes in Information. Seller represents and warrants that the information supplied to Purchaser under this Purchase Order or any related agreement, is free from any discrepancies, errors, or omissions. Review and prior approval of such information by Purchaser in no case shall relieve Seller of its indemnification obligations herein, which shall remain absolute. Seller shall, at Seller's expense, be liable and responsible for any remediation arising out of or relating to any such discrepancies, errors or omissions.

7. Rejected Shipments and Purchaser's Remedies. If the goods shipped or to be shipped hereunder are rejected, in whole or in part, by Purchaser by reason of Seller's failure to comply with any of the representations, warranties, terms, conditions and/or specifications contained herein or in any related agreement, Purchaser, after so notifying Seller, may: (a) return the rejected portion of such goods to Seller at Seller's expense; or (b) hold the same for such disposal as Seller shall indicate, without invalidating the remainder of this Purchase Order; or (c) rework the goods at Seller's expense so that they comply with the representations, warranties, terms, conditions and specifications contained herein and in any related agreement; or (d) reject the entire shipment of such goods and cancel this Purchase Order for any undelivered balances of goods. When any goods are returned, disposed of, or reworked, Purchaser will invoice Seller $500.00 (US) for administrative handling.

If goods shipped or to be shipped hereunder are rejected, as hereinabove provided, Purchaser may purchase like goods elsewhere, and charge Seller with any loss or damage (either direct or indirect) sustained by Purchaser (including, but not limited to, any difference between the price paid by Purchaser for such like goods and the price specified on the face hereof) plus all costs of collecting the same (including, but not limited to, reasonable legal fees and court costs). Purchaser is not obligated to pay for any goods that it rejects.

In addition to the other remedies described in this Purchase Order, in the event Seller breaches its obligations hereunder, Purchaser may pursue all legal and equitable remedies available to it.

8. Price. Unless otherwise specified, the prices stated in this Purchase Order include all charges for packing, hauling, storage, transportation to point of delivery, and taxes. Sales and use taxes not subject to exemption shall be stated separately in Seller's invoice. Seller may not increase prices on the goods ordered after the acceptance of this Purchase Order.

9. Set-Off. Any Counterclaim against Seller or any of Seller's related entities by Purchaser which arises out of this or any other transaction may be set-off against any money due to Seller under this Purchase Order.

10. Specification Change. From time to time, Purchaser may revise, supplement, or otherwise amend the Specifications. These revised Specifications shall become effective as specified in the Purchase Order after Seller's receipt of such revision, supplement, or amendment unless Seller provides Purchaser with written notification of objection. Said notification of objection must be received by Purchaser within fifteen (15) days prior to the effective day. If Seller provides a written notification of objection, then both parties shall promptly and in good faith attempt to resolve the objection. If the objection cannot be resolved within thirty (30) calendar days, then Purchaser, in its sole discretion, may: (a) purchase the goods from a third-party supplier, in which case the obligations including, but not limited to, any purchase requirements and/or commitments of Purchaser shall be reduced accordingly; or (b) terminate this Purchase Order and any related agreement with Seller without penalty, liability or further obligation.

Seller shall not make any change to any raw material, package material, feedstock, portion or any components of any product, the production process, the production equipment, any documentation or information related in any way to Purchaser's products or production or the production location(s) without Purchaser's prior written consent. Purchaser, in its sole discretion, is entitled to reject any such change. Seller shall be liable for any costs or damages incurred by Purchaser as a result of any change made by Seller without obtaining Purchaser's prior written consent, including, without limitation, costs and damages incurred as a result of any product recall.

For the Purpose of this Section 10, "Specifications" means, finished goods and packaging specifications, manufacturing instructions, processing instructions, quality control procedures, finished goods and component performance tests, and other information relating to the manufacture of the goods.

11. Invoices. No invoice will be paid by Purchaser unless it carries the following certification: "Seller represents that, with respect to the production of the goods and/or performance of the services covered by this invoice, it has fully complied with Section 12 of the Fair Labor Standards Act, as amended."

12. Meet or Release. If during the term of this Purchase Order or any related agreement, Purchaser can purchase goods of like kind and quality to the goods specified hereunder from a third-party supplier at a cost that is lower than the cost of the goods purchased hereunder from Seller, Purchaser may notify Seller of such cost and Seller shall have the opportunity, within thirty (30) calendar days of such notice, to price the goods purchased hereunder as to result in the same cost to Purchaser. If Seller timely fails to do so or cannot legally adjust the price, Purchaser may: (a) purchase the goods from the third-party supplier, in which case Purchaser's obligations, including but not limited to, any purchase requirements and/or commitments, if any, of Purchaser hereunder shall be reduced accordingly; (b) terminate this Purchase Order and any related agreement without any penalty or further obligation; or (c) continue purchases under this Purchase Order and any related agreement.

If Seller timely fails to do so or cannot legally adjust the price, Purchaser may: (a) purchase the goods from any third-party supplier, in which case the obligations, including, but not limited to, any purchase and sale requirement and/or commitments, if any, of Purchaser hereunder shall be reduced accordingly; or (b) terminate this Purchase Order and/or any related agreement, without any penalty, liability or further obligation. Within thirty (30) calendar days of the effective date of this Purchase Order or at any time Purchaser so requests, Seller shall certify in writing to Purchaser that Seller is in compliance with this section and shall provide all information that Purchaser reasonably requires in order to verify such compliance.

14. Intellectual Property. Seller warrants that the goods furnished hereunder do not infringe any United States or foreign patent, trademark, trade secret copyright, or any other Intellectual Property right; that it will defend any suit that may arise in respect thereto; and that it will defend, indemnify and hold Purchaser harmless from and against any and all loss which Purchaser may incur (including, but not limited to, reasonable legal fees and court costs) by reason of the assertion of any rights with respect to the goods furnished hereunder whether by reason of Purchaser's purchase, use, or otherwise.

Seller and Purchaser agree that the work resulting from Seller's services shall be considered as a work-made-for-hire as contemplated and defined in the United States Copyright Act. To the extent any such work does not qualify as a work-made-for-hire under any applicable law, including, but not limited to, the United States Copyright Act, 17 U.S.C. §101 et seq., Seller hereby assigns to Purchaser or its designee the entire right, title, and interest for the entire world in and to all work produced and performed including, but not limited to writing(s), formula(s), design(s), model(s), mold(s), drawing(s), photograph(s), design invention(s), and other invention(s) (collectively, "Inventions") made, conceived, or reduced to practice or authored by Seller, Seller's employees, agent or any other person or entity acting on behalf or for the benefit of Seller, either solely or jointly with others, during the performance of this Purchase Order or with the use of information, materials, or facilities furnished by Purchaser or developed by Seller, under this Purchase Order.

Seller does hereby acknowledge that under the terms of this Purchase Order, all writing(s), formula(s), design(s), model(s), mold(s), drawing(s), photograph(s), design invention(s), and other invention(s) made and all rights appertaining thereto are entirely the property of Purchaser or its designee, its successors, and assigns, absolutely and forever, and for all uses and purposes whatsoever and free from payment of any royalty or compensation whatsoever except that contemplated by this Purchase Order.
