

GOJO SMARTLINK™ Activity Monitoring System (AMS)

60-DAY TRIAL PROCESS

COMMITMENT: Trial Project Kick-off Meeting Conference Call

(Estimated time: 45 minutes)

(IT, Engineering, Environmental Services, BioMed, Purchasing, Infection Prevention, and Unit Management)

Project Kick-off

- Introductions of Project Team
- Site survey planning review
 - Hand hygiene assessment requirements during installation
 - IT set-up requirements
 - Radio Frequency (RF) review
 - Facilities Engineering installation approval
- Installation planning (5 room limit)
- Unit selection review (floor map required) – Product selection review

Site Survey

- Site survey (on-site)
 - Complete RF scan
 - Confirm cellular signal strength
 - Complete dispenser evaluation
 - Review room doorway configuration

DAY 1: System Installation & Hand Hygiene Assessment

(Estimated time: less than 1 day)

(IT, Engineering, Environmental Services, Infection Prevention, and Unit Management)

Installation

- Install network gateway device for remote connection
- Install hardware per room plans (5 room limit)
- Software configuration and system validation
- User training (hardware and software)

Assessment

- Staff education discussions and/or meetings
- Work flow evaluations
- Direct observation of hand hygiene practices
- Interviews with key stakeholders

60-DAY TRIAL BEGINS

...after installation approval & education/training

Weekly remote clinical engagement

DAY 30: Clinician-Based Support Intervention

- Just-in-time coaching event by GOJO Clinical Application Specialist
- Focus on 5 approach: 5 RIGHTS OF HAND HYGIENE™, 5 hours, 5 rooms
 - The Right Product
 - The Right Amount
 - The Right Time & Technique
 - The Right Moment
 - The Right People

Weekly remote clinical engagement

DAY 60: Trial Conclusion (Estimated time: less than 4 hours)

- Upon completion of the 60-day trial, the de-installation process will be conducted as defined and within the agreed upon time frame established
- Removal of all hardware will be completed by GOJO
 - Replacement of previous hardware and/or wall repair to be completed by the facility
- Software license will expire

Clinical Assessment Presentation

(Leadership, Infection Prevention, and Unit Management)

- A comprehensive hand hygiene assessment that includes recommendations for developing an improvement initiative that identifies:
 - Organizational alignment
 - Leadership engagement
 - Recommended next steps

